2016-17 Cohort Year

Heritage University Honors Program Criteria and Application Requirements

To be considered for the 2016-2017 Honors Program Cohort, you must be admitted to Heritage University with demonstrated academic excellence through a combination of earned grade point average, completion of advanced placement courses, and/or higher than average placement on academic assessments such as the COMPASS and SAT.

HU Honors Program applicants must complete and submit the following information to the Honors Program Faculty Committee no later than June 1, 2016:

- Heritage University Honors Program Application Form (May substitute Soar or Act Six application support materials as indicated on form.)
- A personal goals statement (minimum of two pages, double spaced, and typed; however, if Soar or Act Six essays are a total of two pages, they may be substituted as long as they address personal and academic goals.)
- One reference letter from a teacher or counselor, who discusses your academic potential and your previous commitment to exemplary academic performance. (Please include name, title, phone number and email of reference, and date that written reference can be expected, if the information is not included in this application.)

Submit your completed application packet via email to honorsprogram@heritage.edu or

Deliver in person, or mail, your completed application packet to
