CFO/Vice President of Finance

Heritage University invites nominations and applications for the position of CFO/Vice President of Finance. Heritage University is an accredited, private institution offering a wide array of academic programs and degrees. Unique in the depth of its commitment to education as a source of empowerment and social mobility, it provides opportunity to a highly diverse, low-income student body to build successful lives and careers. The University is located on the Yakama Nation Reservation in the natural beauty of the Yakima Valley, Washington's primary agricultural region, which is also home to thousands of Latino-American families.

The CFO/Vice President of Finance is the principal officer responsible for finance administration. This individual is proactive in development and implementation of policies, strategies, budgets, process and procedures, and in the analysis and improvement of the financial status and operations of the University. He or she provides strategic and day-to-day management of financial functions.

Heritage University is particularly looking for a leader who not only provides direction in the areas of finance but can also bring vision and creativity to overall operation of the University. Heritage has new facilities, many new faculty and staff, and the strongest group of students in its history. It has new programs in Health Science, Education, and other fields as well as new partnerships with several other universities and colleges. The CFO/VP is a key member of the President's leadership team.
